Assistant Coach

Chelsea grew up in Kaneohe, Hawaii, where her volleyball journey began. At the age of 12 she was introduced to club volleyball and continued to play. In high school, Chelsea played as a Middle-blocker for three years on the varsity squad at Iolani School.

Chelsea played 4 years of NAIA sports, two of those years in volleyball and the remaining two in water polo. In volleyball, she began her career as a right-side hitter, and ended as a defensive specialist. In water polo she played as Azusa Pacific University's (APU) goalie through her last two years. She recently acquired her AAA rating at the end of her first year playing sand volleyball.

She is at the beginning of her coaching career, with high aspirations to gain more knowledge and experience in the coaching realm of the game. This will be her fourth season as a club coach, and she is excited for the opportunity to be a part of a staff that strives for excellence as they work together to ensure an unforgettable experience for the players.

Chelsea graduated Cum Laude from APU in the spring of 2010 with an undergraduate degree in Communication Studies, and an interpersonal emphasis. She currently works as Mount Hermon's Youth and Adult Conference Registrar.

“We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence, then, is not an act, but a habit.” —Aristotle
